

Shavers End Reservoir, Limepit Lane, Dudley

The upper photographs date from 1927, the year the reservoir was constructed. Little seems to have changed during its 80 plus year existence. The main external alteration would appear to be the replacement of the concrete balustrading on the top perimeter with tubular steel railings.