

Winhill Water Tower, Tower Road, Burton on Trent

Winhill Tower was the first tower to be built by the Company and was completed in 1907. It remained in service until the 1990s. Its sole purpose today is for the accommodation of third party radio communications equipment and associated aerials which festoon the roof of the tower.